Briarwood El Camino Little League Presentation October 14, 2008 City Council Meeting

Briarwood El Camino Little League recently completed a very successful 2008 Little League season. The league consists of over 252 players ranging in ages from 5-12 years and the league consists of 4 divisions; (5) Tee ball teams, (6) Farm teams, (4) Minor teams and (4) Major divisions. At the end of the season the League organizes All Star teams to compete in 3 age groups, 9-10, 10-11 and 11-12 years in age. The 2008 11-12 year old All Stars advanced through the District 44 Tournament, and were the 2008 California Section 5 champions.

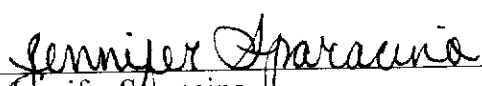

The success of the Briarwood El Camino Little League is not only on the field. The League represents the City with great sportsmanship and leadership.

Ms. Christina Contreras, President of Briarwood El Camino Little League will introduce the players and coaches for the 2008 11-12 year old All Star, Section 5 Champions, to the City Council.
